

1st ECTORS meeting

Copenhagen, 14-15 September 2019

SATURDAY 14TH SEPTEMBER

BELLA SKY – ROOM ECTORS

09:00 – 19:00 first ECTORS meeting

09:00 – 09:30 Welcome and review 2008 - 2018
Marc Dahlke, Regensburg, Germany
Martin Hoogduijn, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

09.30-11.00 Session 1: Stem cells new developments
Chairs: Marc Dahlke, Regensburg, Germany
Martin Hoogduijn, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

MSC mechanisms of action
Francesco Dazzi, London, United Kingdom

MSC in organ injury
Rafael Kramann, Aachen, Germany

Liver organoids from adult stem cells
Luc van der Laan, Rotterdam, The Netherlands

11.00-11.30 Coffee/tea

11.30-13.00 Session 2: Cell therapy clinical trials
Chairs: to be announced

MSC in clinical kidney transplantation
Giuseppe Remuzzi, Bergamo, Italy

From phase 1 to phase 2 clinical trials with MSC in kidney transplantation
Marlies Reinders, Leiden, The Netherlands

Lessons from other phase 1 trials
Jens Kastrup, Copenhagen, Denmark

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.30 Session 3: Organ reconditioning
Chairs: to be announced

1st ECTORS meeting

Copenhagen, 14-15 September 2019

Kidney machine perfusion

Sarah Hosgood, Cambridge, United Kingdom

Liver machine perfusion

Nicholas Gilbo, Leuven, Belgium

Regeneration on the pump

Rutger Ploeg, Oxford, United Kingdom

15.30-16.00 Coffee/tea

16.00-17.30 Session 4: Corporate session

to be announced

1st ECTORS meeting

Copenhagen, 14-15 September 2019

SUNDAY 15TH SEPTEMBER

BELLA CENTER – ROOM ECTORS

9.00-10.00 Session 5: Abstract presentations

Chairs: to be announced

10.00-10.50 Keynote lecture: Kidney organoids

to be announced

10.50-11.20 Coffee/tea

11.20-12.50 Joint session with VCA and BSC as part of ESOT2019

VCA quo vadis?

Chairs: to be announced

- 11:20 – 11:50 Advances in organ preservation and machine perfusion: potential impact on VCA
Annemarie Weissenbacher, Oxford University, UK / Innsbruck Medical University, Austria
- 11:50 – 12:20 Thinking outside the box: Combining VCA and regenerative medicine?
Robert Rieben, Bern, Switzerland
- 12:20 – 12:50 Cell-based immunoregulation and tolerance induction: are we getting any closer?
Fadi Issa, Oxford University, United Kingdom
- 12.50 Closing